

O Little Town of Bethlehem

 Alto
Recorder

1                    2                    3                    4

O   lit - tle   town   of   Beth - le - hem, how   still   we__ see   thee

5                    6                    7                    8

lie;                A - bove   thy   deep   and   dream - less   sleep,   the   si - lent__ stars   go

9                    10                  11                  12

by;                Yet              in      thy      dark      street      shin - - eth,      the      ev - er - last - ing

13                  14                  15                  16                  17

light;            The      hopes and fears   of      all      the years, are      met      in      thee      to - night.